

Coffee Play Dough Recipe

Want to make a unique playdough recipe? Try using some dry coffee grounds!

What you need:

2 cups of used coffee grounds (dry)
A Half cup of salt
1 and a half cups of cornmeal
warm water

Directions: Mix all of the dry ingredients and slowly add warm water get it slightly wet.

This kind of playdough has a different kind of texture. Don't worry about the coffee grounds ruining your color since the cornmeal will absorb the coloring.

to

Alum Playdough Recipe

This unique recipe uses alum, a common household item. It is a fun spin on the original recipe.

What you need:

2 tablespoons of alum
2 cups of flour
1 cup of salt
1 cup of water
2 tablespoons of oil
a few drops of any food coloring you wish

Directions: Pour the dry ingredients into a pan and stir. Then, stir your food coloring and oil and water together. Pour the liquid into the dry ingredients carefully while you mix them together. Afterwards, you will need to knead the mixture. This recipe is best stored in plastic containers in the fridge.

Traditional PlayDough Recipe

90% of people will end up making the traditional playdough. It works well, is easy to make, and is the same recipe your grandmother made.

Ingredients:

2 cups of baking soda
1 and a half cups of water
1 cup of corn starch

Directions: Mix with a fork until the mixture is smooth and boil until thick. Takes about 4 minutes.

Salt Playdough Recipe

Like many playdough recipes, the salt playdough recipe uses salt.

Ingredients:

1 cup of salt
1 cup of water
2 cups of flour
1 tablespoon of cooking oil

Instructions: Mix the salt, flour, oil, & water together.

